

Confidentiality & Non-Compete Summary – Parenting Genie

This Confidentiality and Non-Compete Summary outlines the expectations of all independent contractors providing services through Parenting Genie. By agreeing to provide services via our platform, you agree to uphold these principles.

1. Confidentiality

All contractors must always maintain the confidentiality of Parenting Genie clients and business operations. This includes but is not limited to:

- Client personal and health information
- Internal procedures, forms, and documentation
- Any information disclosed during consultations

You agree not to share, distribute, or replicate any information obtained during your work unless legally required or with written permission from Parenting Genie.

2. Use of Client Data

Client data is to be used solely to provide the agreed-upon services through Parenting Genie. Any use of this information for external or personal purposes is strictly prohibited.

3. Non-Compete Clause

While providing services through Parenting Genie, you agree not to directly solicit clients you met via the platform for your personal business outside of the platform for six months after your last service provided through Parenting Genie.

This does not prohibit you from working with other organisations or continuing your own business independently, so long as you do not divert Parenting Genie clients or resources.

4. Termination

Breaches of confidentiality or violations of the non-compete agreement may result in immediate termination of services and, if applicable, legal recourse.

You confirm your agreement with the above terms by continuing to provide services via Parenting Genie.
